

THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN WORK AND SOCIETY

Wednesday, November 5 (4th-3rd millennia)

9h30-10h00	Registration
10h00-10h15	B. Lion and C. Michel Welcome and Introduction
10h15-10h45	F. Joannès Historiography on Studies Dedicated to Women and Economy in the REFEMA context
10h45-11h15	Keynote speech I J. S. Cooper The Job of Sex: The Social and Economic Role of Prostitutes in Ancient Mesopotamia
11h15-11h30	Coffee break
11h30-12h00	Catherine Breniquet Weaving, Potting and Churning: Women at Work during the Uruk Period. Evidences from the Cylinder Seals
12h00-12h30	Camille Lecompte The Representation of Women in Lexical Texts
12h30-14h00	Lunch
14h00-14h30	Fumi Karahashi Women and Land in the Presargonic Lagash E₂-MI₂ Corpus
14h30-15h00	Maria-Giovanna Biga Women at Work at the Ebla Court (a Syrian Court of 3rd Millennium BC.)
15h00-15h30	Massimo Maiocchi Women and Production in Sargonic Adab
15h30-16h00	Coffee break
16h00-16h30	Bertrand Lafont Women at Work and Women in the Economy during the Neo-Sumerian Period
16h30-17h00	Agnès Garcia-Ventura Weaving Textiles, Weaving Lives: Engendering Ur III Textile Work Force
17h00-17h45	General discussion on the 4th and 3rd millennia

Thursday, November 6 (2nd millennium)

9h30-10h00	Adelheid Otto Women at Work during the 3rd and 2nd Millennia According to Depictions in the Minor Arts of Mesopotamia
10h00-10h30	Cécile Michel Gender and Work in the Old Assyrian Private Archives
10h30-11h00	Nele Ziegler The Data from Mari on the Economic Activities of Women (18th century BC)
11h00-11h15	Coffee break
11h15-11h45	Ichiro Nakata Economic Activities of nadītum Women of Šamaš as Reflected in the Field Sales Contracts Published in MHET II/1-6
11h45-12h15	Katrien de Graef Cherchez la femme! The Economic Role of nadītum Priestesses in Old Babylonian Sippar
12h15-14h00	Lunch
14h00-14h30	Sophie Démare-Lafont Women at Work in Mesopotamia: the Legal Point of View
14h30-15h00	Matteo Vigo Sources for the Study of the Role of Women in the Hittite Administration
15h00-15h30	Brigitte Lion Work, Gender and Society at Nuzi
15h30-16h00	Coffee break
16h00-16h30	Josué Justel The Involvement of Women in the Economic Agreements: The Case of the Syrian Late Bronze Age Archives
16h30-17h00	Masamichi Yamada On the kubuddā'u in the Emar Texts
17h00-17h45	General discussion on the 2nd millennium
20h00	Conference dinner for contributors

Friday, November 7 (1st millennium)

9h30-10h00	Eiko Matsushima Women in Elamite Royal Inscriptions
10h00-10h30	Virginie Muller Women and their Activities According to Cuneiform Divinatory Corpus
10h30-10h45	Coffee break
10h45-11h15	Louise Quillien Invisible workers: the role of women in textile production during the 1st millennium BC Mesopotamia
11h15-11h45	Yoko Watai A Prosopographic Data-Base of Women in the Neo-Babylonian Sources
11h45-12h15	Laura Cousin Beauty Experts in the Documentation of the 1st Millennium BC: the Female Perfume-Makers
12h15-14h00	Lunch
14h00-14h30	Julien Monerie Prebend-Ownning Women and Temple Economy in Hellenistic Uruk
14h30-15h00	Violaine Sébillotte Women, Gender and the Economic History of the Ancient Greek World
15h00-15h30	Coffee break
15h30-16h00	Keynote speech II Saana Svärd Teppo Women's Work and Female Administrators in the Neo-Assyrian Palaces
16h00-17h00	General discussion on the 1st millennium and final discussion