

Workshop: EpiDoc Encoding ancient texts

Venue: Academy of Athens
Date: 2-5 May 2017

Preliminary programme

Tuesday May 2

9:00 Welcome, introduction

Introduce XML, TEI, EpiDoc and Oxygen. Look at examples of existing digital corpora.
Discuss editorial aspects of encoding.

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Starting to Encode

Oxygen setup; tagging text transcription and Leiden features. Hands-on work.

16:30 Private practice session and questions

17:00 End

Wednesday May 3

9:00 Continuation of text encoding

Further Leiden practice; text directionality; XSLT transformation for proofreading and display. Hands-on work.

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Tagging metadata

Adding the description and history of the objects. Overall structure of an EpiDoc text.
Hands-on work.

16:30 Private practice session; identify topics participants are specifically interested in.

17:00 End

Thursday May 4

9:00 Advanced Textual Features

Apparatus Criticus; Verse. Other features including translations, notes, bibliography
Hands on work.

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Working with EpiDoc.

Longer term projects, roles and supporting skills. Alternate ways to enter and validate XML.

Discussion

16:30 Private practice session and questions

17:00 End

Friday May 5

9:00 Vocabularies and analysis.

Lemmatization, words and names; controlled vocabularies and linked data.

Address questions and unfinished topics.

Discussion, debrief, questions about participants' own projects

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Conclusion

Overview and evaluation of ongoing projects in the EpiDoc community

Detailed overview of EpiDoc resources and community for continuing support.

Further discussion of individual projects.

16:00 End