The Prima Facie – Law, History and Politics is an international journal, and is published twice a year by the Law Graduate Program of UFPB. The editorial office is located in the CCJ at Federal University of Paraíba (UFPB). We accept collaborations in Portuguese, Spanish, English and French. It welcomes papers in the following sections:

Corpus: Articles (from 30,000 to 80,000 characters, spaces included) for a special dossier.

Articles: Articles without relation with dossiers in the same range.

In Brazilian Portuguese: An article translation into Brazilian Portuguese in the same range.

Books & Ideas: Review of books which were published in the last four years (from 15,000 to 40,000 characters, spaces included).

Except under unusual circumstances, it is the policy of the Prima Facie journal not to publish works which have appeared or are to appear in other publications.

For all submissions, please, log in to the Prima Facie system at

We help foreign authors to put into practice their works according the Prima Facie editorial rules.

- Footnotes - Book Antiqua or Times New Roman, 10pts; single space

Citations of authors must follow the system Author/Data, for instance: (BONILLA, 2010, p.49).

Figures, graphs, tables, maps etc. should be on separate pages of the text (with indication of the places where they are to be inserted); all should be numbered, titled and with sources specified. Acronyms and abbreviations should be spelled out when first mentioned in the text.

The articles can be submitted in Portuguese, Spanish, English or French and must include an abstract (not a summary) in the original language and in English of up to 10 lines and with three key words.

Bibliographical references must be complete, located at the end of the article, in alphabetical order.
