

The European Research and Information Network on Parliamentary History (EuParl.net) presents:

The Europe of Parliaments
Current Research in the Field of Parliamentary History

International Conference
8-9 November 2012

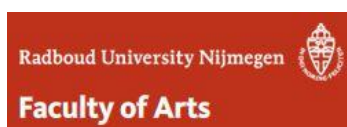

Centre d'histoire de Sciences Po
56 rue Jacob, Paris

Organisers:

prof. dr. Carla van Baalen, prof. dr. Jean Garrigues, dr. Frédéric Attal, Joris Oddens

In collaboration with:

le Comité d'histoire parlementaire et politique, the Faculty of Arts of the Radboud University (Nijmegen), the Centre for Parliamentary History (Nijmegen), the Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research, the Montesquieu Institute (The Hague) et le Centre d'histoire de Sciences Po (Paris).

MONTESQUIEU INSTITUTE

SciencesPo.

Centre d'histoire

Thursday 8 November

13.00-13.30 : Welcome by Jean Garrigues (president of the CHPP) and Carla van Baalen (director of the CPG)

13.30-15.00: Artistic Approaches

Chair: prof.dr. Pasi Ihalainen, University of Jyväskylä

Dr. Marij Leenders, Centre for Parliamentary History Nijmegen, Picturing Conventions of Parliament. Parliamentary Photojournalist Erich Salomon in The Hague 1936-1940

Prof. dr. Remieg Aerts, Radboud University Nijmegen, The Architecture of Political Representation: Parliamentary Buildings in Europe, 19th-20th centuries

Coffee and Tea

15.15-17.00: The British Model

Chair: dr. Adéla Gjuricová, Czech Academy of Sciences

Dr. Henry Miller, History of Parliament London, The British Parliament and the Representation of Public Opinion before Democracy, c. 1800-1914

Dr. Kálmán Pócza, Pázmány Péter Catholic University Budapest, The British Model of Parliamentarism in Hungary

Coffee and Tea

17.15-18.30: Nineteenth-Century Experiences

Chair: prof. dr. Jean Garrigues, University of Orléans

Dr. Jonas Harvard, Södertörn University / Mid Sweden University, Parliament as the Source of Public Opinion: Pre-Polling Politics in 19th-Century Sweden

Dr. Valeria Ferrari, University of Rome La Sapienza, Between Myth and Reality: The Changing Fortunes of Parliament in 19th-Century Italy

Dr. Franz Adlgasser, Commission for the History of the Habsburg Monarchy, Some Aspects of a Collective Biography of the Austrian Parliament, 1848-1918

Friday 9 November

9.30-10.45: Parlements in Transition

Chair: prof. dr. Andreas Schulz, Kommission for the History of Parliamentarism and Political Parties Berlin

Dr. Adéla Gjuricová, Czech Academy of Sciences, The Professionalization of a Parliament in Democratic Transition: Continuities and Contrasts in the Czechoslovak Case

Dr. Bettina Tüffers, Kommission for the History of Parliamentarism and Political Parties Berlin, The Professionalization of a Parliament in Transition - Learning to be an MP: The 10. People's Chamber of the GDR

Coffee and Tea

11.15-13.00: The European Parliament

Chair: prof. dr. Carla van Baalen, Centre for Parliamentary History Nijmegen

Dr. Ann-Christina Lauring Knudsen, Aarhus University, Transnational Pathways. Patterns of Recruitment and Circulation among the First Cohort of British and Danish Members of the European Parliament

Prof. dr. Sandro Guerrieri, University of Rome La Sapienza, The European Parliament: From an Unidentified Historiographical Object to a Relevant Topic Of Research

Dr. Rinna Kullaa, University of Jyväskylä, The European Parliament in the 20th Century: Challenges in Legitimacy and Prospects for Future Influence

13.00-14.45 Lunch

14.45-16.00: Current Research in Mediterranean Europe

Chair: dr. Paul Seaward, History of Parliament

Prof. dr. Mikel Urquijo and Prof. dr. Joseba Agirreakuenaga, University of the Basque Country, Current Research on Parliamentary History in Spain

Prof. dr. Jean Garrigues, University of Orléans, The Rebirth of French Parliamentary History

Coffee and Tea

16.15-18.00: Round table on future collaboration