

SOUTH AND EAST MEDITERRANEAN YOUTH POLICIES ON A TIGHTROPE

WP2 Paris Conference - Wednesday, November 25th, 2015
 EHESS – Salle 13 - 105 Bd. Raspail, Paris 75006

- 9:30-10:15 Welcome Address: Blandine Destremau (CNRS/Iris) and Myriam Catusse (Ifpo)
 Introduction of participants and overview of the conference programme
 Preliminary address: Youth policies on a tightrope in the SEM countries
- 10:15-11:15 Families and Challenges of Youth Autonomy
- The Impact of Family Policies on Youth Policies in Turkey, Laden Yurttaguler (Bilgi University)
 - Youth and Family in Tunisia: Trapped Between Normative Constraints and the Neo-liberal Economy, Renata Pepicelli and Daniela Pioppi (IAI)
- 11:15-11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-12:30 Employment and Challenges of Youth Inclusion
- Fostering and Controlling the Unequal Inclusion of the New Generation: Youth and Employment in Morocco, Maria Cristina Paciello and Daniela Pioppi (IAI)
 - The Shortfall of Development Policies to Address Youth Issues in Palestine, Abeer Musleh (Bethlehem University)
- 12:30-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-15:30 Politics of Youth Policies
- Youth Policy in Tunisia: Internationalisation of Youth as a Public Policy Issue, Omar Somi.
 - Gender, Intersectionality and Youth Policies, Ruba Salih (SOAS)
 - Youth and Spatial Politics in Lebanon : Exclusionary Public Policies and Claiming the Right to the City, Mona Harb (AUB)
- 15:30-15:45 Coffee break
- 15:45-17:15 After the 2011 “Arab Spring”: A Historical Turn?
- From Economic to Social? Identifying a Shift in Tunisian Projectification, Aude-Annabelle Canesse (LAM/Sciences Po Bordeaux)
 - The Disguise of Youth Inclusion in Egypt, Nadine Sika (AUC)
 - Gulf and EU Migration Policies after the Arab Uprisings: SEM Youth as a Security Issue Françoise de Bel-Air (Migration policy center/EUI)
- 17:15-18:30 Comparative Perspectives and Conclusions: Blandine Destremau and Myriam Catusse