

REVISTA D'ESTUDIS COMPARATIUS. ART, LITERATURA, PENSAMENT

ISSN: 2013-7761

A Call for papers for the fourteenth issue of "FORMA. Revista d'Estudis Comparatius. Art, Literatura i Pensament" (Journal of Comparative Studies. Art, Literature and Thought) started on September 1st 2016. The CFP is open and addressed to scholars, PhD students or any researcher holding at least a BA degree. We welcome submissions of book reviews or academic articles in English, Spanish, Catalan, French, or Italian. You can find all of the information as well as the required editorial guidelines on <http://www.upf.edu/forma/en/>

FORMA privileges the dialogue between disciplines and critical traditions. The subject matter of the articles is open. All the texts, as specified in the System of Arbitration section, have to comply with the guidelines established by the entities in charge of indexing scientific journals, with regard to the plurality of the editorial and scientific committees as well as the selection process and revision of published texts. All articles will undergo a double-blind peer review process.

Each journal will include articles written by well-known prestigious scholars, as well as an interview with a person of importance in the intellectual field and some book reviews which might be of academic interest. Reviews should refer to books published in 2016 and 2015.

Submissions may be sent to our mail: revista.forma@upf.edu. The subject of the email should state whether it is an article or a review and the message should provide the following information about the author: Name, Title of the article/review and Affiliation.

Deadline for submissions: December 31th, 2016
