

On the crossroads of modernity

New perspectives on religion, culture and society since 1750

CCSCE conference in cooperation with the Faculty of Theology of the Ruhr-Universität Bochum and KADOC-KU Leuven

24-25 June 2019 — Ruhr-Universität Bochum

The Research Network on Christian Churches, Culture and Society (www.ccsce.eu) is a network of individual researchers that focuses on historical research on the interaction of religion, culture and society in Europe from the second half of the 18th century until the present. CCSCE ambitions a renewed approach to religious history, implementing a broad and genuinely transnational perspective, across the whole of Europe. It aims to develop a durable and multidisciplinary research community on the subject, involving both senior and promising young scholars.
