

Deutsch-französisches Kolloquium zur mittelalterlichen Geschichte

Sommersemester 2021, donnerstags um 14:00 Uhr

Nils Bock
Münster/Deutschland

Catherine Rideau-Kikuchi
UVSQ/Frankreich

I. Iberische Halbinsel

5. April: Alexandre Giunta (Toulouse), Dei gratia Regina: The Matrimonial Alliances of the Kings of Aragon and Pamplona (11th-12th centuries)

22. April: Sandra Schieweck (Heidelberg), The Crown of Castile and its Frontiers: A Spatial Analysis

II. Geschichte und Wirtschaft

20. Mai: Ulla Kypta (Hamburg), Merchants' Cooperation in Late-Medieval Antwerp

27. Mai: Cécile Troadec (Paris), Social Mobility in a Growing City (Rome, 15th century)

III. Städtische Konflikte

17. Juni: Jörn Christophersen (Frankfurt), Why Religious Framing Matters. Observations on Violence and Coercion in Medieval Urban Conflicts

24. Juni: Claire Judde de Larivière (Toulouse), Political Conflicts, Popular Politics and Ordinary Politicization: How did Ordinary Inhabitants Interact in Medieval Urban Politics?

IV. Materialität und Schrift

1. Juli: Harmony Dewez (Poitiers), Administrative Memorials in the Time of High Farming c. 1270-1330

8. Juli: Abigail Armstrong (Heidelberg), The Materiality of Seignorial Administration in the North-East of England in the Later Middle Ages

Zeit: 14-16h

Format: Zoom-Konferenz (Anmeldung unter nils.bock@uni-muenster.de) weitere Informationen unter: <https://sfahm.hypotheses.org/>

Abbildung aus dem „Codex Manesse“ (<https://digi.ub.uni-heidelberg.de/diglit/cpg848/0723>), Lizenz: CC BY-SA 3.0 DE UB Heidelberg, Copyright © Nils Bock 2021.